Commemorative Information

Cemetery: KEZELBERG MILITARY CEMETERY, Wevelgem, West-Vlaanderen, Belgium
Grave Reference/ II. B. 4.
Panel Number:

Location: Kezelberg Military Cemetery is located 19 km east of Ieper town centre on a road leading from the N8 Meenseweg connecting Ieper to Menen. The N8 leads from Ieper to Menen via Geluveld and Geluwe. On reaching the town of Menen, the left hand turning onto the N32 Bruggestraat leads to Roeselare. 3 km along the N32 lies the right hand turning onto the Ieperstraat. 400 metres along the Ieperstraat lies the right hand turning onto the Korteweg. The cemetery lies 200 metres along the Korteweg on the left hand side of the road.

Historical Information: The village of Moorsele was captured by the 15th Royal Irish Rifles on the 14th October 1918, after remaining in German hands during almost the whole of the War. Kezelberg Military Cemetery was made in October and November 1918. There are now nearly 150, 1914-18 war casualties commemorated in this site. Five American soldiers have been removed to the American Cemetery at Waereghem. The cemetery covers an area of 540 square metres and is enclosed by low red brick walls.
