Commemorative Information

Cemetery: DADIZEELE NEW BRITISH CEMETERY, Moorslede, West-Vlaanderen, Belgium

Grave Reference/
Panel Number: VI. E. 40.

Location: Dadizeele New British Cemetery is located 16 km east of Ieper town centre on a road leading from the N8 Meenseweg, connecting Ieper to Menen via Geluwe. From Ieper town centre the Meenseweg is located via Torhoutstraat and then right onto Basculestraat. Basculestraat ends at a main crossroads, directly over which begins the Meenseweg. 12 km along the N8 lies the village of Geluwe and the left hand turning onto the Nieuwstraat (later called Derdeansiersstraat, towards Dadizele). 5 km along this road lies the village of Dadizele. The cemetery is located 100 metres after the left hand turning at the junction with Geluwestraat and Beselarestaat, in the village of Dadizele.

Historical Information: The village was reached by the 36th (Ulster) Division, and taken by the 9th (Scottish) Division, on the 29th September 1918, after remaining in German hands during almost the whole of the War. Severe fighting followed, on the 1st October, at Hill 41, 1.6 kilometres South-South-East of the village. Dadizele New British Cemetery is in fact an extension of the Communal Cemetery. It was made after the Armistice by concentrations from other burial grounds and from the battlefields of 1918 (there are a few 1914 graves in plot VI, row D). The graves are mainly those of the 36th, 9th and 35th Divisions.
