Cemetery: EBBLINGHEM MILITARY CEMETERY, Nord, France

Grave Reference/ Panel Number: I. E. 38.

Location: Ebblinghem is a village halfway between St. Omer and Hazebrouck. Ebblinghem Military Cemetery is 600 metres from the centre of the village heading east on the D55. Turn right on to the 'Chemin des Loups' and the Cemetery is a further 500 metres on the left hand side opposite the wood.

Historical Information: In April, 1918, at the beginning of the German offensive known as the Battles of the Lys, the 2nd and 15th Casualty Clearing Stations came to Ebblinghem and began the cemetery. It was used until July by them and by the Royal Air Force. There are now nearly 450, 1914-18 and a small number of 1939-45 war casualties commemorated in this site. The cemetery covers an area of 1,266 square metres.
