In Memory Of

FRANK HACKNEY

Sapper 50058
206th Field Coy., Royal Engineers
who died on Tuesday, 3rd December 1918. Age 30.

Born Enlisted Residence Hyde

Died How Killed in action Theatre of War France & Flanders

Additional Inf. Son of Francis J. and Mary Hackney, of 7, Newton Street, Commercial Brow, Hyde, Cheshire.

Commemorative Information

| | |
|---|---|
| Cemetery: | SOUMOY COMMUNAL CEMETERY, Walhain, Brabant wallon, Belgium |
| Grave Reference/ Panel Number: | 5. |
| Location: | The village of Soumoy is located north-west of the town of Philippville off the N40. From the motorway E42 which runs between Namur and Mons turn off onto the Charleroi ring R3, follow the ring to the junction with the N5 and turn onto the N5 direction Philippeville. Follow the N5 to the junction with the N40 and turn onto the N40 direction Beaumont. In the village of Daussois turn left to Soumoy, in the village turn left towards Senzeilles and the cemetery is along on the right. The graves are located at the right hand side at the rear. |
| Historical Information: | There are buried an officer and five men of the 206th Field Company, Royal Engineers, killed on the 3rd December, 1918, by the explosion of German ammunition which they were salving |