HOLLYBROOK MEMORIAL, SOUTHAMPTON, Hampshire, United Kingdom
The Hollybrook Memorial is situated in Southampton (Hollybrook) Cemetery, which is on high ground in Chilworth Road, Shirley, next to Southampton General Hospital. Commemorated on the memorial are officers and men of the forces of the Empire who fell in the Great War and whose graves are not known, especially those who went down in transports or other vessels torpedoes or mined in home waters, but it includes the names of others who died at home, or in distant areas, and whose bodies could not be recovered. The memorial takes the form of a screen wall on which the names of the dead are carved. It is situated on a terrace at the back of the War Graves Plot immediately within the entrance to Southampton (Hollybrook) Cemetery. The dedicatory inscription on the memorial reads as follows: 1914 - 1918 TO THE GLORY OF GOD AND IN MEMORY OF 1855 OFFICERS AND MEN OF THE FORCES OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE WHO FELL IN THE GREAT WAR AND HAVE NO OTHER GRAVE BUT THE SEA OR TO WHOM THE FORTUNE OF WAR DENIED THE KNOWN AND HONOURED BURIAL GIVEN TO THEIR COMRADES IN DEATH.

Historical Information:

The Memorial in Hollybrook Cemetery, Southampton, is one of those erected by the Imperial War Graves Commission to record the names of those officers and men of the forces of the Empire who fell in the Great War and whose graves are not known. It is especially the memorial of those who went down in transports or other vessels torpedoes or mined in home waters, but it includes the names of others who died at home, or in distant areas, and whose bodies could not be recovered.
