Location:

Tezze is a village in the Province of Treviso, a large town north of Venice. The village is 8 kilometres east of Susegana, a town on the main road some 24 kilometres north of Treviso. The British Military Cemetery lies about 270 metres south of the village of Tezze. The cemetery is permanently open and may be visited anytime.

Historical Information: The village of Tezze was captured by the Austrians in the advance in the autumn of 1917, and remained in their hands until the passage of the Piave (October-4th November, 1918) during the battle of Vittorio-Veneto (24th October-4th November, 1918). Tezze British Cemetery contains the graves of those who fell on the north-east side of the river during the Passage of the Piave. There are now over 300, 1914-18 war casualties commemorated in this site.
