

In Memory Of

JAMES TOLSON

Serjeant 12047

South Lancs. Regiment attd.1st King's African Rifles who died on Friday, 30th August 1918. Age 22

Born Hyde, Cheshire

Enlisted Hyde, Cheshire

Died How Killed in action

Theatre of War Africa

Additional Inf. FORMERLY 17194 CHESHIRE REGT. Son of Sarah E.
Hopkinson, 41 Grantham Rd., Gt. Horton, Bradford.

Commemorative Information

Cemetery:

LUMBO BRITISH CEMETERY, Mozambique

Grave Reference/Panel Number:

II. D. 1.

Location:

Lumbo British Cemetery was made after the First World War to take the British burials from Lumbo, Chinde, Quellmane and Villa Bocafe European Cemeteries. It contains the graves of soldiers whose names and units are unknown. The African and Indian casualties are buried elsewhere and their names are carved on Screen Walls.